

MSC Summer Art Camp 2011

Come along as we visit

EGYPT

June 20-24, Egyptian Art Camp

Art has had a significant role in the history and culture of ancient Egypt. Campers will be the rulers of their own art-filled kingdoms with pharaoh masks, tell their personal stories with wall relief sculptures, wrap and encase mummies in elaborate cases, store prized possessions in handmade canopic jars, and develop hieroglyphic writing skills.

AND

PERU

July 25-29, Peruvian Art Camp

Over the Andes and through the Amazon rainforest is where creative explorers will engage in the colorful culture of Peru. Join us as we create clay Peruvian stirrup pots, capture the gentle sound of the Amazonian rainfall with rain sticks, reproduce the majestic Incan pyramids, and more.

No bags needed. Just bring your imagination! Ages 5 and up

Classes are $100.00 per week

Students enrolled in weekly Extended Day and Special Camps will receive Extended Day credit
